Nippon Paint Holdings Wins the Excellence Award of the 2020 Internet IR Awards of Daiwa IR

Nippon Paint Holdings Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Chairman, President and CEO: Masaaki Tanaka; “NPHD”) has won the Excellence Award of the 2020 Internet Awards given by Daiwa Investor Relations Co., Ltd.

The Internet IR Awards are given to companies that have excellent websites for investor relations and are effectively using these websites for disclosure and investor communication activities. In addition, these activities must be based on the concept of “5T&C”, which positions the Internet as an integral element of corporate investor relations programs. NPHD was ranked 24th out of all 3,883 listed companies in Japan and received the Excellence Award.

NPHD has been improving the content of its IR website to give shareholders, investors and other stakeholders globally a better understanding of business activities, management policies and other items. The objective is to provide all financial and non-financial information necessary for sound communication with stakeholders in a timely and fair manner. We will continue to upgrade our IR website and strengthen engagement with stakeholders.
